A THOUGHT FOR THANKSGIVING DAY :

In that solemn hymn of praise, the Preface of the Mass , we read : Gratias Agamus Domino Deo Nostro - Let us offer thanksgiving to the Lord, our God . Of all peoples, and of all nations , we Americans have particular reason to offer thanksgiving to God. He has blessed us with peace and has spared us the tortucus path of war and hate. Hunger, thirst, the maddening terror of death stalking the skies, continue to plague the lives of countless millions in Europe and the Balkans. On Thanksgiving Day we can eat our meal with the light of God's sunshine pouring into our windows. For us there will be no foul, crowded, subway cavern, no makeshift shelter, no thirst, no hunger . Hasten then to give thanks for these and the many benefits He has conferred upon us. Grant that our hearts on this Day may echo and re-echo the telling words of the Preface-- Gratias Agamus Domino Deo Nostro.

FATHER GILLIS -SUNDAY'S CATHOLIC HOUR:

" If one has lost himself, he has lost God."

" The most baffling experience we can have is to look for something we know not what."

" The greater anguish is that of the soul who has never known God or found Him."

" There is a sharper pain in seeking for God than trying to elude Him."

AID THE FARLEY STAMP CLUB

In its noble and commendable efforts to aid the Missions the Farley Stamp Club has placed boxes for the collection of cancelled stamps in the various halls. In removing stamps from your letters leave sufficient margin. In co-operating with the Club, you are aiding the cause of Christ, for all returns gained from the sale of these stamps are devoted to missions.

SERIES # 2 PIUS X  PRAY THE MASS :

PRAYING THE MASS : We pray the Mass by using the Mass-book, the Missal. In it we read words expressive of Christ's sacrifice. We are united to the priest at the altar and with our neighbor. As members of the Church, as a portion of Christ's Mystical Body , we must take an active part in the Mass, which the Church, as a society, offers to the Blessed Trinity, through Christ and with Christ.

LIVING THE MASS : We live the Mass by bringing our sorrows and our joys, our will, our hopes to the Holy Sacrifice. We live the Mass by taking the spirit of Christ's Sacrifice to our daily jobs and linking each day to His Sacrifice. From our union of our sacrifice with that of Christ we derive the grace to endure or to overcome our daily trials, temptations, and difficulties.

Bl. GASPAR del Bufalo converts gangsters

Blessed Gaspar Del Bufalo is the founder of the Society of the Most Precious Blood. In promoting devotion to the Price of Our Salvation, he was a true CATHOLIC ACTIONIST. Not content with stirring the hearts of sinners from the pulpit, he actually went out among the ruthless bandits of Italy. Above, Ada Bethune has pictured him with them. Does he seem afraid to live a good life and to show his religion among those who laughed at it? — even more, he converted them by his example. Students must not be afraid to lead good, saintly lives even among those who laugh at them -- and they will convert them, too!
